After breakfasting on the vessel they were driven to the Arlington, and almost immediately left the hotel for the B. & O. depot. They took the 10:40 train for Cincinnati, a special Pullman car having been engaged for their accommodation.

about thirty colored citizens of the District called upon Secretary Kirkwood this morning, and made speeches favoring the appointment of Dr. Augusta as surgeon in charge of the Freedman's Hospital. Charges ot malpractice were made against Dr. Purvis, who has also been en-dersed for the position, and who will to-morrow fill a statement in reply.

MILLIONS OF BACK TAXES DUE FROM BANKS. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue continues investigation into the affairs of banks other than national in the large cities. As the investigation goes on the amount of liability for back taxes due from the banks piles up. It now reaches pretty near $2,000,000, exclusive of the amount heretofore collected.

MOURNING DRAPERY TO HIS OWN USE .- James Ginnidy, the rigger of the new State, War and Navy department building, has been removed. He had held his position for a long time. The cause of his removal is somewhat unique. When the building was ordered to be draped in mourning in respect to the dead President, the goods for such decoration were furnished the rigger. He saw two bolts of the bombazine which struck him as being desirable for use on his own house; so he took them away. The cloth was missed, and an investigation followed. The goods were

The Case of Guiteau.

WITNESSES BEFORE THE GRAND JURY TO-DAY. This morning, when the grand jury of the Criminal Court entered upon their work, the case of Charles J. Guiteau, for the murder of James A. Garfield, late President of the United States, by shooting him on the 2d of July last, of 3 in the afternoon, as was the case during the was taken up. The first witness was Gen. J. K. Barnes, surgeon general of the U.S. army, who testified as to the wound; Dr. J. B. Lamb, THE CAPITOL HILL SUB-POST OFFICE was opened this morning, and the reports received death; George W. Adams, as to seeing the shooting; Officer Patrick Kearney, as to the ar-rest; George W. McElfresh, as to the prisoner being brought to headquarters and being sent to jail; Messrs. Parke, Smith and others, as to the shooting and the locations of the parties. Mrs. Sarah E. V. White, who had charge of the waiting-room in the depot, was a so examined. Surgeon General Barnes and Dr. Lamb were requested to return to-morrow, to which time the grand inquest adjourned.

It is possible that the presentment will be made to-morrow, and perhaps the indictment may also be returned. As by to-morrow evening Mr. Scoville, the counsel and brother-in-law of Guiteau, may have arrived, it is not unlikely that a time will be fixed at once for the arraignment of the prisoner. There is much conjecture about the City Hall as to when and how the prisoner will be arraigned.

> The Republican Hubbub in New York. STALWART AND ANTI-STALWART - NEW YORK HERALD GOSSIP.

The New York Herald to-day, speculating upon the probabilities as to the upshot of the republican state convention on Wednesday, gives the following budget of gossip: , "Scores of prominent men would give the idea that their one mission in life is to kill Roscoe Conkling, politically, and to damn him effectually from all participation in the politics of his native state. But human nature is unchanged, and the stalwarts know that they have but to intimate to terior. The whole number of patients in the hospital during last year was 1,160. Of these men in large force on the half-breed side of the 266 were white males and 64 white females; 409 colored males and 381 colored females. Of this number, 660 were discharged cured and 76 dissome weeks ago they were converted. Dame charged relieved. The total number of cases which resulted fatally was 157. Dr. Palmer recommends that the hospital property should be owned by the United States or the District, and the title property should be owned by the United States or the District, safe to say that the inside workers of the party will heave from the description because of the party will heave from the description because of the party will heave from the description because of the party will heave from the description because of the party will heave from the description of the party will heave from the party will be a support of 1. Careful perusal of the foregoing points will convince the political reader that "things is workin'," and between now and Wednesday it is believed a great many men and brethren now classed among the half-breeds will see a great light, be converted and shout loudly in favor of the orthodoxy of the administration church."

From the Philadelphia Press. Hon. Benjamin Harris Brewster, who returned from Washington last evening, where he has been a few days acting as special counsel prosecuting the star-route thieves, says that there is no doubt about President Arthur's hearty sympathy with the prosecution. "You may say," Mr. Brewster said, "President Arthur told me that they should be pursued with the vigor and the rigor of the law."

President Arthur.

STILL ENGAGED IN SETTLING HIS LAW BUSI-NESS. President Arthur took a much needed rest yesterday. He had worked until very late on Saturday night arranging his law business, assisted by Messrs. Knevals and Ransom, his partners, and Mr Bernard Gatens, his legal secretary. Ever since his arrival in New York from Washington he has been engaged with these gentle-men, and after two days' incessant labor he now work of settling up his affairs. He had intended to remain in New York not later than to-day, but the mass of business he has yet to transact will necessitate his staying until to-morrow. ton on Tuesday afternoon or earlier.

A Rumor Afloat. — It is rumored her that ex-Gov. Dingley, who was elected to fill the vacancy in the second Maine Congressional district, caused by the election of W. P. Frye to the U. S. Senate, will decline the election, and that Mr. James G. Blaine will then be nominated with the certainty of election and the hope of being elected the next Speaker of the House of being elected the next Speaker of the House of Representatives.—Wash. special N. The Star Route Cases.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE CRIMINAL COURT TO-DAY. This morning, in the Criminal Court, Judge Cox, it was expected that there would be some interesting proceedings in the cases of Brady, French, Brown, McDonaugh and Turner on the information for conspiracy to defraud the government, filed last week, and there were many spectators in the court room. After the court had been formally opened Col. Corkhill said: While I do not think it is always proper to take notice of what appears in the newspapers, yet it is rumored that on account of the information filed in the "star route" cases a few days ago that there is to be some motion presented to the court this morning, I suppose the first thing in order would be for the parties against whom the information was filed to come into court and submit to the jurisdiction of the court; that that should be done before any preliminary motion is made. Col. Cook, who has official charge of these cases, informs me that he is too unwell to argue any motion to-day, and that he ought not now to be here. In his behalf, therefore, I ask before any motion is heard by the court that at least two days' notice be given to counsel for the government in order that they may be heard; and I further ask that notice be sent through The court.—That course will be pursued.

The District Estimates.

SOME OF THE IMPORTANT ITEMS. The estimates made by the District Commissioners for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, was sent to the Secretary of the Treasury today. An Illinois Murderer Lynched.

SOME OF THE "BEST CITIZENS" AMONG THE LYNCHERS, AND WOMEN WAVING THEIR HAND-KERCHIEFS IN ENCOURAGEMENT.

Special dispatches from Bloomington, Ill. give particulars of the lynching there Saturday night of Charles Pierce, the imprisoned horse-thief, who shot and killed Jailer Frank while the latter was conveying him from one cell to another in the jail. The dispatches say that some of the best citizens were in the front ranks of the lynchers. Leading business men cheered and encouraged the lynchers, and women waved their handkerchiefs in approbation. For two hours the sheriff, with all his force, the police force and other officials stood at the jail door and fought and pleaded with the infuriated crowd. When the murderer was raised the first time, Officer Bayley, of the police force, imperiled his life by breaking through the breaking through the crowd and cutting the rope, letting the body fall. Upon attempting to repeat this act of bravery, he came near being killed. The officers called out the fire department to quell the riot by throwing water on the crowd. When a steam engine arrived on the ground, cries of "Cut the hose" convinced the firemen that it would not do to undertake to carry out, their instruction and they retired. carry out their instruction, and they retired. The ringing of the fire-bells called hundreds more to the scene and added to the excitement. When lynching was imminent dispatches passed between Gov. Cuilum and Lieut. Gov. Hamilton, and the latter was directed by the governor to and the latter was directed by the governor to tell the sheriff to call on the militia to protect life and property, but it was known that the militia could not be assembled. Senator Fifer, formerly state's attorney, and R. B. Porter, state's attorney, did all they could to quiet the mob, promising that the murderer should be tried and punished, but their pleadings and promises were hooted at. "Justice and the courts are a farce." "We have seen too much of court are a farce," "We have seen too much of court quibblings," and other similar remarks were shouted at the officers by the mob, who persisted in their purpose of lynching Pierce and then dispersed.

MURDER OF A SEWING MACHINE AGENT.— ewing machine agent named Charles E. Spence sewing machine agent named Charles E. Spencer on Friday, at New Tacoma, Washington Territory, shot a rival agent named Dewitt in the breast and stomach, inflicting, it is feared, mortal wounds. Spencer had made some disparaging remarks about the late President and the citizens ordered him out of the town. Meeting Dewitt he became involved in a quarrel, with the above results. The community is greatly excited, and Spencer, if caught, will probably be lynched.

The Threats Against ex-Senator Conkling. THE WRITER OF THE LETTER DISCOVERED. UTICA, N. Y., October 3 .- The writer of the letter said to contain threats of assassination against Senator Conkling has been discovered to be Henry J. Rowley, of the second ward, Utica a republican speaker, who offered strong Gar-field sympathy resolutions at the late ward caucus, which received two votes only—a more moderate resolution offered by a stalwart, being adopted instead. Rowley has no particular oc cupation. The letter was written to D. H. Johnson. Rowley admits that the letter contained the expression of a hope that somebody would put a bullet through Mr. Conkling if he attempted to enter the republican state conven-

The International Cricket Match. PHILADELPHIA, October 3.—In the cricket match, Ulyett and Midwinter, of the English eleven, resumed their bats at noon to-day and proceeded at once to augment their score. By 12:30 they had raised the score to 120, and were seemingly likely to go on indefinitely. After running up a score of 73, Midwinter was caught at long field on three wickets for 147. The fifth wicket fell at 120 for 170, leaving Emmett and Scott on at the creases. Bates, who just retired, scored 13. The bowling and fielding of the Philadelphians are much better to-day than Saturday. At 1:45 o'clock p.m. a recess was BADLY WHIPPED BY A WOMAN.—The New York Evening Telegram says the photographer who was found insensible on Monday last near Flushing, and who died soon after being removed to the lock-up, proves to be George R. McClellan, and it is alleged that the cuts and bruises found upon his head were inflicted by blows from the butt of a whip-stock in the hands of a Miss Susie Bruner. Miss Bruner carries the mail between Port Washington and Great Neck. McClellan (according to Miss Bruner's state-ment) was ahead of her with his wagon and would not permit her to go about her duty. He crossed the road several times to head her off, and finally crowded her wagon into the ditch, and when requested to let her pass refused and commenced to insult her. She then beat him with a whip handle and left him on the road.

The New Horse Distemper. APPEARANCE OF THE "PINK EYE" DISEASE IN

A distemper has broken out in this Districtand has suddenly become quite prevalent, calle d by veterinary surgeons and stablemen the "Pink Eye," a term given it on account of the peculiar tint which it gives to the whites of the eyes of animais affected by it. Dr. Joseph Bushman, a wellknown veterinary practitioner in this District, says of the disease, that it is an epidemic fever, which appears to be spreading, and has, within the past week, become general throughout the District. It appears to be traveling in a southerly direction, having a few weeks, since first meak it. weeks since first made its appearance in the northerly part of New York state and in some localities in New England, and has since been working its way south and west. In Philadelphia it has had its run, and is now raging in Baltimore city. It first made its appearance here about a week ago, and has now spread over the entire District, and there are supposed to be entire District, and there are supposed to be over a thousand horses at this time affected by it. Dr. B. says it is not a fatal disease, and by proper management and treatment yields easily, especially when the animals have good stabling and nursing. The symptoms are unmistakable, and any intelligent driver can observe its ap-

The most conspicuous indications are a droop-ing of the animal affected, a lowering of the head and ears, stiffness in the limbs, swelling of the ankles and leg joint, and a disposition to step tip-toed with the hind feet. The eyes are dull and heavy, and the whites show a pink color with a little yellow, especially when the disease is of the billions type. The eyes discharge water freely, and in the advanced stage a milky matter. These are the indications of the bilious type.

The other type is the rheumatic, and in this the legs appear very stiff and swollen and the animal moves with great reluctance; ceases feeding, with great thirst and breathes quickly Gen, Hurlbut, United States minister in Lima.

THE NIGHT SOR. DEPOSIT CASE.—To-day in the Criminal Court, Judge Cox, the case of Francis Carter charged with depositing night soil in places other than those designated by the board of health was called—Mr. F. Miller for the District, and F. P. Cuppy for the accused. The defence was that the deposit was made outside of the District of Columbia (in Virginia), and therefore he was not amenable to the act, under which the proceedings are taken. Mr. Miller replied that under the act of Congress it was required that the night soil should be deposited at the place designated. Judge Cox said he would take the papers. would take the papers.

"Baby Benson."—On Saturday night a well dressed and quite handsome young woman with a baby and a basket applied at the boardinghouse of Mrs. Lynn on Pennsylvania avenue, between 4½ and 6th streets, for entertainment, but failed to get it. She was directed to Mrs. Howard's house, a few doors castward, (476 Pennsylvania avenue), where she engaged a room. Yesterday morning, telling the people in the house that she was obliged to meet some one at the depot at 7 o'clock, she left, and that was the last seen of her. A short time afterwards the baby was discovered snugly ensconced in the basket, being neatly dressed and having attached to it a card inscribed "Call it Baby Benson. Born September 5, 1881." Officer John Fainter took the waif to St. Ann's Asylum. "BABY BENSON."-On Saturday night a well Fainter took the waif to St. Ann's Asylum.

FIREWORKS AT THE OCTOBER CELEBRATION The committee on fireworks and illumination for the October entertainment met at the City Post Office Saturday night, Col. D. B. Ainger, chairman, and Mr. Lawrence Gardner, secretary. It was determined to suspend electric lights on Pennsylvania avenue, between the Capitol and Treasury department, and $3,000 worth of fireworks were recommended. Four thousand dollars, it was recommended. Four thousand dollars, it was thought, will cover the expenses of this committee. In addition to the usual pyrotechnic display, fireworks, &c., there will be three set pieces, the first representing the Goddess of Liberty standing between Peace and War; the second, Washington and Lafavette, set forth in two medallions, and the third representing the late President, James A.
